

October 18, 2004

To: Federal Communications Commission

I am writing because I've heard that a Low Power FM station may replace my favorite FM radio stations. I just want the FCC to know when making this decision that myself and many of my friends listen to K-Love and find its programming a tremendous encouragement as we listen on the way to work and back and other times as well. There are many people who have come to prefer music with a Christian message and DJ's who are "family friendly" in their comments on the air.

I would appreciate it if you would not allow the LPFM services to take priority over existing FM station's broadcasts. I truly believe that a station like K-Love, if it went off the air, would be detrimental to the lives of many families who depend on a station that the whole family can listen to together.

Thank you for the opportunity to comment.

Sincerely,

Theresa J. Pinkerton